

“Get Fired up...Ready to go!”

With special guest, Edith Childs

Edith Childs first chanted these words early in the Obama campaign at a rally in her hometown of Greenwood, South Carolina. They ignited the small gathering, and her impassioned chant continued to roar as the swelling crowds grew to millions.

Now Edith is coming to hear DC area women’s vocal ensemble Philomela perform the song her story inspired commissioned by Philomela with lyrics by one of our singers, Myra Bridgforth, and music by Kansas City composer, Ian Coleman.

“CHANGE”

“It shows what one voice can do—
That one voice
can change a room.

And if one voice can change a room,
It can change a state,
It can change a nation,
It can change the world!”*

Join Philomela and Edith Childs at a freewill offering concert:

One Voice Can Change the World!

Sunday, June 7, 2009, at 4:00 p.m.

Vienna Baptist Church

Vienna, Virginia

<http://www.vbc-va.org/>

For more information, call 703-963-2280

* from a speech by Barack Obama during the Presidential campaign