Special Guest Performers

Quadrille is a Washington, DC based Tuba / Euphonium Quartet. The members of the group, all military musicians, performed together as a military ensemble prior to the formation of this ensemble. Their notable performances include concerts and ceremonies in the Washington, DC area as well as around the United States and Canada.

The musicians of Quadrille continue to serve the military as members of "The Band of the Nation's Capital", also known as the 257th Army Band. Their musical backgrounds include performing with symphony orchestras, Broadway shows, in jazz venues as well as with other US Army and Marine Bands. The members of Quadrille are David Tarquine and Brian McCommon on euphonium and Steven Kemp and Donald Hornbuckle on tuba.

"The Angelic Host Proclaims", arranged by Alexandria Band member Martin Tousignant, is a medley of familiar Christmas music, followed by Mendelssohn's famous "Saltarello" from the Symphony No. 4. Martin is a former military musician and currently plays in the Army Reserve Band.
