Dear Jane,

Thank you for sending me the farewell greetings from the chorus. You cannot believe how touched I was by this gesture. It was like attending one's own funeral. No one speaks ill of the dead, they say.

Of course, some singers signed the pages, hardly knowing who I am, and that's all right. Others touched on our shared experiences.

I was pleased that some remembered the newsletter that I produced for a few years. I felt it was something I could do to promote future events, report on past choral events and perhaps provide a bit of education and humor as well.

Thank you for assembling the messages and sending them to me. I hope to be able to attend future performances of my favorite chorus.

Sincerely,
