Featured in Today's Concert...

Dr. Wendy Matthews (Alexandria Band Director) received her Bachelor of Music degree from Peabody Conservatory of Music, her Master of Music degree from the University of Maryland-College Park, and her Doctor of Philosophy in Education degree with a concentration in educational psychology and instrumental conducting from George Mason University. She has guest conducted on the local, regional, and national level. Dr. Matthews teaches music theory and conducts the band at NVCC. She is also a member of the music education faculty at the University of Maryland-College Park.

Dr. Mark Whitmire (NOVA Community Chorus Director) holds degrees in conducting and voice from Abilene Christian University, The University of Texas and the University of Maryland. He has received numerous grants and awards, including a scholarship for post-graduate studies at the Britten-Pears School in England and a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. At NVCC he was named "Outstanding Faculty of the Year" in 1999, and he was awarded the "President's Sabbatical" in 2004. Dr. Whitmire has conducted choirs at The National Theater, The Kennedy Center, Washington National Cathedral, and in England at Gloucester Cathedral, Westminster Abbey and Canterbury Cathedral.

Christine Hagan (Chorus Accompanist) enjoys performing as soloist and accompanist, and has appeared in the U.S. and abroad. The Washington Post commended Ms. Hagan as "a musician of formidable skill" who plays with "musical intelligence and precise technique." In addition to teaching piano in her Arlington studio, Ms. Hagan teaches and accompanies the Chorus at NVCC, which awarded her the Jean C. Netherton Award for Excellence for Outstanding Service in May 2000.

Susan Bilodeau (Soloist) was born in Waltham Massachusetts. She moved to Virginia in 2000, and lives in the Alexandria Mount Vernon area. Susan's father played in a big swing band for many years and Sue sang show tunes at four years old. She is currently studying for her degree in Applied Associate Arts at NVCC as a voice major. It is her lifelong dream to perform on stage and is eager to sing tonight for you.
