

The Savannah
DISPUTATION
BY EVAN SMITH

Directed by Bernie Cohen

Some of that Old-Time Religion is dished out in this heaven-sent comedy ... like a Golden Girls theological episode! Get a glimpse into the hearts and minds – if not the souls – of four people who are grappling with life's challenges (not unlike you and me). Two elderly sisters forget all about southern charm when a perky door-to-door evangelist comes knocking. When they bring in their parish priest to provide some 'ammunition', their dinner party explodes with sharp wit and a few surprises. Both hilarious and thought-provoking, you'll leave the theatre laughing AND thinking!

Recommended for ages 13 and up.

Produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.
