Sister and brother CHRISTINE AND DAVID HAGAN rarely played piano duets while they were growing up in Frederick, Maryland. Chris moved to Virginia, and David to Massachusetts, where they pursued separate music careers. In 1980 they were asked to play a duo concert in their hometown as a benefit to start a scholarship fund in memory of their first teacher,

Sperry Storm. In spite of living 400 miles apart, they found that they enjoyed being duo pianists so much that they have been commuting and performing ever since. In the Boston area, they have been heard on WGBH radio, at the Art Complex in Duxbury and at Jordan Hall. In Northern Virginia they have appeared on recital series presented by the Performing Arts Association of Alexandria, the Music Ministry of the First Baptist Church of Alexandria, and Music at Messiah Lutheran Church. They have also enjoyed appearing with the NOVA Community Chorus in Alexandria, including at the opening of the Schlesinger Concert Hall and Arts Center.
