

The Banner of Buccleuch

12 Scottish Songs

Sir Walter Scott

arr. Ludwig Beethoven

adapted and alto added by M. Whitmire

4

1. From the
(2. When the)
(3. And) (3. And)

brown crest of Ne - wark its south - ern in - vad - er spread when it is ov - er, we'll sum - mons ex - tend - ing, Our waste - land dis - ord - er, At the drink a blithe mea - sure, To each 4

1. From the
(2. When the)
(3. And)

brown crest of Ne - wark its
south - ern in - vad - er spread
when it is ov - er, we'll sum - mons tend - ing, Our waste - land ord - er, At the drink a blithe mea - sure, To each

8

sig - nal is wav - ing in smoke and in flame; And each for - est - er blithe, from his glance of her cre - scent he paused and with - drew; For a - round them were mar - shalled his laird and each la - dy that wit - ness'd our fun, And to ev - ery blithe heart that took

8

sig - nal is wav - ing in smoke and in flame; And each for - est - er blithe, from his glance of her cre - scent he paused and with - drew; For a - round them were mar - shalled the laird and each la - dy that wit - ness'd our fun, And to ev - ery blithe heart that took

11

moun - tain de - scending, Bounds light o'er the heat - er to join in the game. Then up with the ban - ner, let pride of the bord - er, The flowers of the For - est, the bands of Bucc - leuch. A strip - ling's weak hand to our part in our plea - sure, To lads that have lost, and the lads that have won. May the for - est still flou - rish, both

8

moun - tain de - scending, Bounds light o'er the heat - er to join in the game. Then up with the ban - ner, let pride of the bord - er, The flowers of the For - est, the bands of Bucc - leuch. A strip - ling's weak hand to our part in our plea - sure, To lads that have lost, and the lads that have won. May the for - est still flou - rish, both

15

for - est winds fan her, She has blaz'd ov - er Et - trick eight a - ges and more; In re - vel has borne her, No mail glove has grasp'd her, no spear - men sur-round; But bo - rough and land-ward, From the hall of the peer to the herd's in - gle-nook; And for - est winds fan her, She has blaz'd ov - er Et - trick eight a - ges and more; In re - vel has borne her, No mail glove has grasp'd her, no spear - men sur-round; But bo - rough and land-ward, From the hall of the peer to the herd's in - gle-nook; And

18

sport we'll at - tend her, in bat - tle de - fend her With heart and with hand, like our ere a bold foe - man should scathe or should scorn her, A thou - sand true hearts would be-huz - za! My brave hearts, for Bucc-leuch and his stan - dard, For the King and the Coun - try, the sport we'll at - tend her, in bat - tle de - fend her With heart and with hand, like our ere a bold foe - man should scathe or should scorn her, A thou - sand true hearts would be-huz - za! My brave hearts, for Bucc-leuch and his stan - dard, For the King and the Coun - try, the

21

fath - ers of yore.
cold on the ground.
Clan and the Duke.

3

2. When the
3. And ~~the~~

fath - ers of yore.
cold on the ground.
Clan and the Duke.

3

2. When the
3. And